THE PROGRESSIVE TICKET

For President
THEODORE ROOSEVELT
of New York
For Vice-President
HIRAM JOHNSON
of California

COUNTY CONVENTION TOMORROW.

Tomorrow, at 11 a. m., the Progressives of Weber county will meet in mass convention at the court house to name a county ticket. Every Progressive, having an interest in the welfare of his party and his county, should be present.

The convention is open to any one who believes in reform, whether he has been Republican, Democrat or Socialist. The aim of the convention will be to select the best possible material for county candidates in order to assure Weber county the best administration possible and to send to the legislature men free from corrupt influences who will not be obligated to any special interests.

There has been no wire-pulling; no schemers have been at work, no slate has been fixed, so here is a fine opportunity for the voters untrammelled to select a ticket that will appeal to the best interest of this community and this county.

At the afternoon session of the convention, as announced in the Standard yesterday, Nephi L. Morris, Progressive candidate for Governor, will speak. His review of the jugglery of the state moneys by the state officers is well worth hearing.

THREE TAFTITES IN OGDEN.

Three Taftites were discussing Teddy. One said he had been a drinker; the other declared he used strong language; and the third objected to him because $140,000 had been contributed to his primary campaign.

A Bull Moose who listened impatiently to get a word in edgewise, said: "Honor bright, gentlemen, are you not all directly connected with big corporations?"

They admitted that one was a railroad attorney and the other two as closely identified with big business.

"Well," said the Roosevelt man, "you are too deep in the mire to see further than the mud that oozes around you. Let me tell you something. You three are Utah Republicans and as loyal, never-changing, dyed-in-the-wool party men you were true to your party in 1908. Is that so?"

"Yes, that is true," said they in chorus.

"Now let me, as a Bull Moose, inquire in what respect Roosevelt is less worthy of your love and affection than in 1908 when your state convention declared him to be the greatest man that ever lived and obligated the delegates to the national convention to vote for him as first choice and Taft as second choice? If Roosevelt is a drinker now he was a drinker then; if he accepts campaign funds now, he received them then; if he uses strong language today, he employed equally strong and emphatic terms then! Now, gentlemen, extricate yourselves! Explain why Roosevelt in 1912 is not as worthy of your admiration today as he ever was, except that now he has big business against him, while in the past he profited somewhat by falling heir to the allegiance long established between the Republican party and special privilege which freely yielded up large sums of money on the advice of the 'inner circle' of the party?"

"Now, as to Roosevelt's drinking, listen to this: Taft drinks; Wilson drinks; Debs drinks. The only candidate who does not drink is Chafin. Grant drank. Clay was a drinker, so was Webster. Cleveland, you recall, had his hunting trips. The list is a long one and the only shining mark is Chafin, the Prohibitionist.

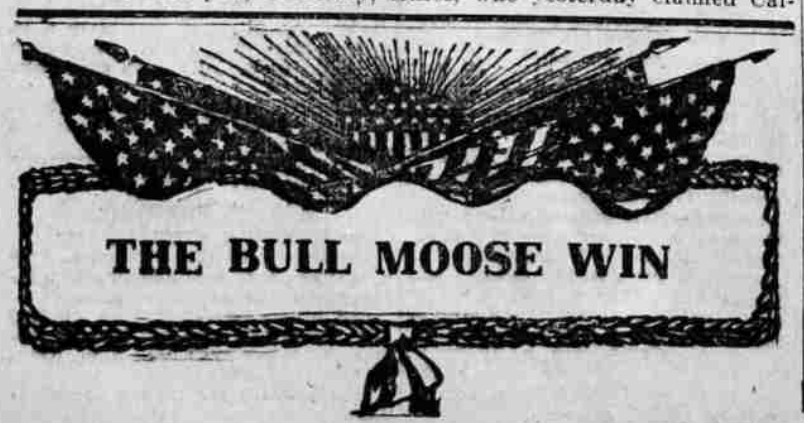

"Strong language indicates strong convictions. The man who is everlastingly sugar-coating his words and qualifying his statements, who never is emphatic, seldom knows his own mind and is easily led and never leads. Roosevelt is frank, open and candid. He is not one thing to your face and your slanderer behind your back. He strikes from the shoulder, walks erect and holds his head up. He could use soft words and wear gum shoes, but he prefers not to be a mollycoddle a toady or a sneak. He tells you in most unmistakable language what he thinks. Evidently he has nothing he fears to disclose. His mind works as though prompted by a conscience which is free from guile. He is the kind of a man the American people love.

"Now, as to his campaign contributions! You Standpatters, the beneficiaries of millions of dollars of corruption funds, whenever campaign contributions are mentioned should look askance, saying, sotto voce:

"Hush, hush!"

"Well, any way Roosevelt is losing ground," said one of the trio in a huff.

"Who told you, Secretary, Hilles, who yesterday claimed California for Taft and the day before placed Kansas in the same list. Here, read this poll of votes made by the New York Herald, an anti-Roosevelt paper," said the Bull Moose, "and then tell me where you get your inside information:

THE BULL MOOSE WIN

The Herald does not disclose what class of men it polled, but a study of the figures indicates that the voters are mainly bankers and business men of the reactionary type. For instance, the Herald's poll of Philadelphia and suburbs was Taft, 105, Wilson, 63, and Roosevelt, 53. Few Philadelphians would hazard the prediction that Roosevelt will run third in that city.

More than 24,000 ballots were taken. The results in the various states follow:

New York, Taft, 583; Roosevelt, 1011; Wilson, 1147. Connecticut, Taft, 85; Roosevelt, 127; Wilson, 96. Delaware, Taft, 266; Roosevelt, 381; Wilson, 927. New Jersey, Taft, 245; Roosevelt, 300; Wilson, 477. Pennsylvania, Taft, 543; Roosevelt, 573; Wilson, 567. Maryland, Taft, 48; Roosevelt, 126; Wilson, 193. Ohio, Taft 942; Roosevelt, 818; Wilson, 1914. Indiana, Taft, 891; Roosevelt, 1711; Wilson, 2100. Kentucky, Taft, 773; Roosevelt, 1452; Wilson, 2764. West Virginia, Taft, 232; Roosevelt, 530; Wilson, 775. Wyoming, Taft, 176; Roosevelt, 118; Wilson, 204.

The figures show Roosevelt has drawn 4150 votes from the Republican party, 678 from Democrats, 20 from Debs.

There is no hope for Taft, if the Herald, in canvassing bankers and business men, finds that Taft is third, while the results prove Roosevelt's wonderful strength even among the "conservative" class.

At the Central New York Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church a straw vote restricted to ministers was taken with the following result:

Total vote, 156; Chafin, 58; Roosevelt, 48; Wilson, 34; Taft 16. The Chicago Record-Herald of last Tuesday says:

"The result of the national political canvass conducted by private ballot, made by the Record-Herald, shows that, with election day five weeks away, the race at present lies between Wilson and Roosevelt, with Taft running third. A large portion of the 15,000,000 voters in the country are still on the fence. They are undecided as to how they shall cast their ballots; they are in a ruminative mood. All indications are that the contest will be decided only in the closing two weeks or more of the campaign. The magnitude of this undecided vote is just now one of the most pronounced phenomena of the campaign."

TAFT PAPER CONCEDES ROOSEVELT'S STRENGTH.

The New York Sun, the most bitter anti-Roosevelt paper, publishes the following from its correspondent who followed Roosevelt on his tour of the country:

"Roosevelt has succeeded in making the country understand the fact that the Progressive party is a real force, which has come to stay, and that it does not constitute a disgruntled segment of the Republican party. He has made every one believe that Mr. Taft absolutely has no chance, and that to vote for the president is equivalent to disfranchisement.

"The states the colonel has visited and in which he appears to have an excellent prospect of carrying are

"Iowa, Minnesota, Washington, Oregon, California, Kansas. The states in which the colonel has more than a fighting chance are: North Dakota, Idaho, Nevada, Colorado, Nebraska, Missouri and Tennessee.

"The states for which the colonel must struggle are:

"Connecticut, Montana and Oklahoma.

"Governor Wilson looks to be the victor in the following states, though in them the Progressives have formed militant organizations: Arizona, New Mexico, Arkansas, Mississippi, Louisiana, Alabama and Georgia.

"The colonel's prospects of carrying North Dakota are lessened by the hostile attitude of Senators La Follette and Gronna, but in the end it is believed he will win its electoral vote.

"Outside of Tennessee, the Progressives will do little in the south other than to establish their party. In Atlanta the colonel violated tradition by assailing the Democratic candidate. It shocked Georgia, but it has awakened the people as never before."

AUTOMOBILES ON ELECTION DAY.

Chairman Dix of the local Republican county campaign is quoted as saying he is opposed to the use of carriages to haul voters to the polls on election day and he does not approve of the policy of heavily assessing candidates for campaign funds.

Good! Let us hear from the Progressive and Democratic chairmen. They should join Mr. Dix; they should meet him in person and, before he has a chance to change his mind, obligate him to do away with the old practice of indulging in a wild scramble for votes on election day by the use of speeding automobiles and other conveyances. With no conveyances to carry them to the polls, the man or woman who has not sufficient interest in the election to walk, if capable of walking, in order to cast a vote, has no strong convictions and could remain at home without unfavorably affecting the results of the contest.

All three chairmen should agree to limit the campaign expenditures and to make public before election day all contributions.

They said last night that they did not have an unpleasant adventure. They were compelled to sleep two nights in caves, two nights in haystacks and a few in barns, but generally were able to stay at farm houses. A condition of the journey was that they must earn their way. They left home with $5 and reached Chicago with 10 cents.

She Had Consumption, Was Dying; Now Well

Eckman's Alternative is being used with success in the treatment of Tuberculosis in all parts of the country. Persons who have taken it improved, gained weight, exhausted night sweats stopped, fever diminished, and many recovered. If you are interested to know more about it, we will put you in touch with some who are now well. Read of Mrs. Govett's recovery.

"Griffith, Ind. "Gentlemen: Thinking that perhaps a short history of the remarkable recovery of my mother-in-law (Mrs. Anna Govett) might benefit some other sufferers, I give the following testimony: About September 10, 1908, she was taken sick with Catarrhal Pneumonia, and continually grew worse, requiring a trained nurse. Night sweats were so bad that it was necessary to change her clothing once or twice every night; her cough increased and got so bad that every body expected that she would not live much longer. In January, when Rev. Wm. Berg, of St. Michael's Church, at Sherrill, Ind., prepared for her death, he recommended that I get Eckman's Alternative, and see if it would not give her some relief. I then requested the attending physician to give his diagnosis and he informed me that she had Consumption, and was beyond all medical aid. When I asked if he thought that it was useless to try the Alternative, he replied that 'No physician could help her any and I could suit myself about it.' So I immediately had Rev. Wm. Berg send for a bottle. Practically without hope for recovery, I insisted that she try the Alternative, which she did. I am glad to say that she soon began to improve. Now, she works as hard as ever, weighs twenty pounds heavier than she did before she took sick, and is in good health. She frankly says she owes her life and health to Eckman's Alternative."

(Signed Affidavit.) Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Diseases, and in up-building the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. For sale by A. R. McIntyre, Drugs; T. H. Carr, Culley Drug Co., The Marshall Drug Co., The Cave Drug Store and other leading drug stores. PICTURE MAN WAS 'JONAH' ON WHALER

San Francisco, Oct. 4.—The whaler Letitia, just returned from the Arctic, carried a Jonah on its trip. The crew, however, made no attempt to use him for whale bait, for the bad luck he attracted undoubtedly rested upon his own shoulders.

F. C. Hempstead, an English moving picture man, engaged passage on the Letitia a year ago, and his outfit was lost aboard the Titanic. A duplicate equipment missed the whaler at Dutch Harbor, Alaska, and Hempstead recounted today the adventures of the ship which he failed to reproduce in pictures.

To begin with, the whaler encountered schools of whales, ice fields, hurricanes, gigantic seas and other spectacular sights of the deep. Then the captain fell from the rigging and was drowned while his boats were busy among the whales. Hempstead took roll after roll of snapshots with a small camera to show his backers what might have been. In luck he pursued him, and on development every picture proved to be out of focus.

"A million dollars' worth of bulky stuff lost," mourned the picture man, with tears in his voice.

RUGBY FOOTBALL SQUAD ON COAST

San Francisco, Oct. 4.—Twenty-four members of the Australian rugby football squad are here preparing for a month's play with California college football teams. They arrived last evening on the steamer Moana and were given a reception by British residents of San Francisco. Their first game is scheduled for Saturday, when they will play the Barbarians, a San Francisco club here.

The California Rugby union, financed the trip, and the state tour, which includes seventeen games. From California the Australians will go to Vancouver, B. C., to play.

CARLISLE LEADS IN POINTS SCORED

Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 4.—The fact that Carlisle has already scored 187 points to her opponents' 7 is being made the subject of much comment here, and the players are being urged to go out after a point record. Coach Warner was well pleased with the work of the eleven thus far, but is guarding carefully against any feeling of over-confidence among the redskins. He criticizes his men severely for a tendency to fumble, which he declares must be remedied before any strong teams are met.

MANY GREEKS TO LEAVE CANADA

Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 4.—That nearly 1,000 Greeks in Vancouver were prepared to leave for home if war became a certainty, was the statement today of Themistocles Ethnan, prominent in the Greek colony. He declared there would be an exodus of 2,000 Greeks from British Columbia and probably 20,000 from Canada as a whole.

SUBMARINE BOAT LOST

Small Craft Collides With Liner—Fourteen Men Are Drowned

Dover, Oct. 4.—The British submarine B-2 was run down by the Hamburg-American liner Amerika here today. She sank at once, drowning fourteen of the crew. The officers in charge were rescued.

The disaster in which the B-2 was sunk occurred while the third patrol flotilla of six submarines was maneuvering off the coast of Kent. The liner Amerika appears to have cut the submarine in halves.

Lieutenant Richard I. Pulleyne, second in command, was the only man among the crew of fifteen to be saved. He was found floating in the sea too exhausted to say more than that "the submarine is cut in two. I went down a mile."

The B-2 left Dover harbor at 5 o'clock this morning.

The liner Amerika stood by after the collision and threw the life buoys overboard while a number of torpedo boats, after being informed of the accident by wireless searched the sea for hours. None of the other members of the crew, however, was found, and no sign of the wreckage was discovered.

The Amerika then proceeded on her voyage to Southampton and Cherbourg, on her way to New York.

This is the sixth disaster to British submarines, each of them involving the loss of from ten to fifteen lives.

Lieutenant Percy B. O'Brien was the commander of the B-2.

DEATH LIST INCREASES

Seven Dead in Wreck of Springfield Express; Train Burns

Westport, Conn., Oct. 4.—The death list from the wreck of the second section of the Springfield express, westbound, over the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad for New York, late yesterday numbers seven. Of the several scores of passengers who were more or less injured only ten remain in the Norwalk hospital. All these are expected to recover.

The dead: MRS. JAMES C. BRADY, of New York City, wife of a son of Anthony N. Brady, of Albany, N. Y. MISS MARY HAMILTON, sister of Mrs. Brady.

MRS. E. PALMER GAUIT, daughter of A. N. Brady. MRS. C. RANSOM, of Albany, sister of Mrs. Brady. ENGINEER GEORGE L. CLARK. FIREMAN J. J. MOKER.

MARK WHEELER, mail clerk, who died in the hospital. Medical Examiner Powers, who began an inquest at the undertaking rooms to which the bodies were taken last night, officially made the statement today that the list numbered seven.

The train was taking a cross-over at high speed. Two signals set against the train are said to have been disregarded by the engineer. All that remained of the train this morning were heaps of smoking wood, mounds of twisted metal from three Pullman coaches which burned, a battered locomotive on its side, two westbound tracks torn up and a bridge spanning the street by which the station is reached, almost a wreck. The day coaches which had been left standing and one Pullman, blackened and smashed, had been placed on the rails and hauled away.
